

Century of Probation

Celebrating, championing and confronting a century of community engagement with offenders.

Bulletin 2

The 'Moments in Probation' series is now well and truly launched with a new one appearing every day on the Portal. I hope you are enjoying their recollections and perhaps you might want to comment on them in the Moments Forum on the portal. If you have an idea for writing a Moment yourself it is not too late and details can be found on the front page of the Portal.

Our Online Seminar series starts on 5th February and a second seminar is in April. This is a good way of networking from the comfort of your computer wherever you are in the world. So hopefully you will look at the topics and send your application in as soon as possible.

We are nearing the launch of our E-Oral History and probably by the time of our next bulletin should be able to give you more details of how you can access it and contribute your thoughts. Watch this space!!

Current work on securing all our speakers for the September Conference is on-going. But I can tell you that the following have already agreed to speak - Sue Raikes, Cedric Fullwood; Joyce Moseley; Maurice Vanstone; Gerhardt Ploege; Pavel Stern; Fergus McNeil; Steve Collett; Tony Grapes; Mike Nellis; Paul Cavadino; Hindpal Bhui and Hazel Kemshall. An impressive list I hope you will agree. Shami Chakrabarti, Director of Liberty will be our guest speaker for the Conference dinner. Now is the time to consider an early registration and achieve the early bird discount. Also we want you to come to the conference and share your expertise by undertaking a workshop - please consider filling in the forms for a workshop presentation. We look forward to welcoming you all in September.

It is a busy time for all of us in the centenary year for Probation. If there is anything you think we should be doing to engage more of you in our ideas then please let us know.

Best Wishes

From Professor Paul Senior and the Century of Probation team at the Hallam Centre for Community Justice.
