

Century of Probation

Celebrating, championing and confronting a century of community engagement with offenders.

Bulletin 3

The first month of Moments is now complete. Please find attached for interest the full list of Moments online. You can look at each one by searching the archive in the Portal. Its an impressive list and some exciting and reflective thoughts have emerged. If you want to join this reflection please submit an idea through the Portal we will be pleased to consider proposals for inclusion in this year long series. Tell us what you think in the Moments Forum.

Our Online seminars were due to start today but due to unforeseen circumstances the first one has been delayed until later in the year. The numbers attending for the first one were low and we hope that you and your colleagues will consider signing up for future seminars. This is a new and exciting way to learn and involves no travel or inconvenience so why not give it a go.

Planning continues for the conference and you can find all the details online. A brochure for the conference is in preparation so encourage all your colleagues to register for a place. To get the early bird discount register before the end of March - but why wait do it today!!

If you haven't already registered your interest to be notified of all future activities that form part of the Century of Probation celebrations, why not do so now? Visit www.cjp.org.uk and click on 'Century of Probation'

Let us know your views and ideas..

Best Wishes

From Professor Paul Senior and the Century of Probation team at the Hallam Centre for Community Justice.
